

From our family....

Food this good can only be found in one place outside of Italy. That place is Ravanelli's in Northridge. We treat you like family. Our employees are friendly and ready to provide you the highest customer service.

Our homemade sauces, dressings, and dough remain a family secret. Our ingredients are hand selected from local growers in order to provide freshness and high quality. That's what makes Ravanelli's stand out from the rest.

Our family has been creating original recipes and serving Italian food for three generations. Family owned and operated, we take special care to ensure our catering services will create a successful event.

Some items do require a one-day notice to prepare.
